

WHO IS THE UUJEC?

Unitarian Universalists for a Just Economic Community is a progressive organization dedicated to economic justice, governed by a member-elected working board of trustees.

Our philosophy is rooted in the UU principles—to create a world of justice, equity, and compassion. We seek to educate UUs on local and global economic and social systems and to advocate for justice.

OUR VISION:

UUJEC envisions a world that nourishes and sustains all living beings, where all people share the riches of the planet, where all voices are heard, where democratic process is practiced, where the inherent worth and dignity of every person is recognized and affirmed as set forth in our Unitarian Universalist principles.

OUR MISSION of economic justice is to engage, educate, and activate Unitarian Universalist individuals and congregations, social justice groups, and their community partners to fulfill our vision of positive systemic change. Using a process of study, reflection, strategy, and direct action, we work collaboratively “to change the economic story from Empire to Earth Community”.

Join us at General Assembly in Providence, June 24-28. As always, we will have our annual meeting, and you can find us in the Exhibit Hall.

WHAT WE DO

ENGAGE

We assist UUs to collaborate ecumenically and network with community organizations to multiply their impact.

We build partnerships with allies in the national economic justice movement.

EDUCATE

We offer programs and a booth at the UUA General Assembly. We also sponsor regional conferences and film forums.

We develop and refine curricula on economic justice, including a Green New Deal, for UU congregations nationwide and hold monthly webinars.

We maintain an updated web site and social-media presence. Our monthly Web seminar series addresses issues of economic justice: uujec.org/webinars.

ACTIVATE

We mobilize UUs to participate in national witness events and equip them with the tools they need to advocate on the economic justice issues important to their congregations and communities.

We are a resource for an expanding number of state advocacy networks & other UU groups.
